

The background is a solid teal color. Overlaid on this are several black silhouettes. A large, dark butterfly is the central focus, positioned in the lower right quadrant. Its wings are spread, and its body and antennae are visible. Several thick, black lines representing branches or stems crisscross the frame, some passing behind the butterfly and others in front of it, creating a sense of depth and movement.

Visualizing transformation diagnosis and treatment of transformed follicular lymphoma

Mariëlle Wondergem